IMBALI SAFARI LODGE

Luxury accommodation in the Kruger National Park

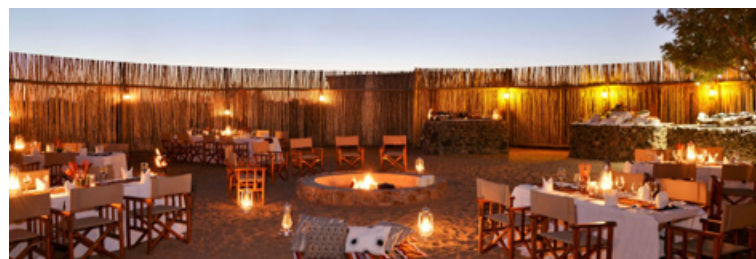

12 luxury suites, sleeping up to 24 adults

Imbali Safari Lodge is a splendid 5-star luxury lodge that lies nestled in a grove of ancient Jackalberry and Tamboti trees on the banks of the seasonally-dry N'waswitsontso River in Kruger National Park. It's one of three luxury lodges in the Mluwati Concession. The safari operators have exclusive access to the 10 000-hectare private concession and unrestricted access to the public roads in the rest of Kruger Park.

Each airconditioned deluxe suite is stylishly decorated in neutral colours with enchanting African touches. Large glass doors open onto a private viewing deck with its own plunge pool. Luxurious features include an ensuite bathroom with stone and marble fittings and a Victorian-style bath and walk-in shower and a massive King-size bed with mosquito netting and quality linen.

Imbali Safari Lodge is located in a remote area and there is no cell phone signal or Wi-Fi.

Children 12 years and older are welcome at Imbali Safari Lodge.
