THE ELEPHANT SANCTUARY

HALF-DAY TOUR

Enjoy an interactive experience with Africa's gentle giants. You are guided on foot by a professional ranger and introduced to the elephants. It's a once-in-a-lifetime chance to interact, feed and witness African elephants in their natural environment who have been tamed through positive reinforcement animal management practices.

You also have the privilege of witnessing the special relationship between the elephants and their care handlers and are taken on an educational tour to learn about the elephant anatomy, grooming routines and where the elephants sleep at night.

TOUR ITINERARY

Guests are guided in small groups on foot through The Elephant Sanctuary. Guides provide in-depth information and insight into African elephants.

You're introduced to the elephants in the forest area, and are allowed to touch and interact with the elephants while supervised by the care handlers. Witness the special relationship the elephant handlers share with their elephants.

Walk trunk-in-hand with the elephants. See the stables where the elephants sleep at night. Learn about elephant anatomy and feed the gentle giants. On hot days, you may see the elephants swimming.

Have a drink at the bar on the main deck before lunch is served. Remember to wear flat walking shoes and hats.
