ITINERARY

1 A shuttle service is available from 7:00 am between OR Tambo International Airport in Johannesburg and the Radisson in Hoedspruit, where you will be staying in style. You'll get to your hotel sometime between 12:30 and 13:30 in the afternoon. Beginning at 15:15, the first portion of your bushveld adventure consists of a three-hour sunset drive through the Blue Canyon Reserve. Blue Canyon is a stunning sanctuary for some of Africa's rarest and most iconic wildlife species, such as rhinos, elephants, lions, cheetahs, and leopards. The Reserve consists of 38,000 acres of unspoiled African bushveld. Enjoy some sundowners and nibbles as you watch the sun set over the African bushveld, and then return to the hotel at 19:30.

2 In the early hours of the morning, you'll set off for the world-famous Kruger National Park, where you can experience a thrilling safari and see the Big 5 and other incredible wildlife. Enjoy a packed lunch in the midst of the rich and beautiful Kruger bush before heading back to the hotel for a restful evening and a delicious meal. During your safari in Kruger, we will supply you with bottled water.

3 One of South Africa's most scenic regions, the Panorama Route refers to the escarpment in Mpumalanga Province, where the Drakensberg mountains separate the Highveld from the Lowveld to the east. The area is replete with stunning waterfalls, gorgeous vistas, and natural phenomena, as well as a breathtaking canyon. On this full-day tour you will visit such iconic attractions as the Blyde River Canyon, Bourke's Luck Potholes, and God's Window. You also have the chance to explore local towns and enjoy scenic viewpoints along the route.

4 Beginning with a three-hour morning game drive in the Moditlo Private Game Reserve, which is located on the banks of the gorgeous Mbesi River and provides an unforgettable encounter with the local wildlife, your final morning will be one you won't soon forget. After your safari, you'll head back to the hotel to check out and then celebrate your trip with a delicious breakfast. There will be a shuttle waiting to take you back to OR Tambo International Airport after breakfast.
