

JOHANNESBURG

ELEPHANT AND MONKEY SANCTUARY TOUR

The Elephant Sanctuary has African elephants and offers an interactive elephant experience, while the monkey sanctuary's goal is to allow them to live as they would in the wild. During this excursion, you can enjoy an interactive experience with Africa's gentle giants on foot while you are guided and introduced to the elephants by a professional ranger. A tour through the Bush babies and Monkey Sanctuary, situated west of the Elephant Sanctuary, is ideal for the family because you can see and learn more about free-living monkeys in a natural and wild environment. During a guided tour through the sanctuaries, guests will experience the splendor of our natural environment to the fullest.

ITINERARY

1

Guests are guided in small groups on foot through the sanctuaries while trained guides provide in-depth information and insight into the anatomy, habitat, habits, feeding, and characteristics of the African elephants and monkeys. Remember to wear flat walking shoes and hats. You will be introduced to the elephants in the forest area and allowed to touch and interact with them under the supervision of their care handlers. You can savor the special relationship that developed between the elephant handlers and their elephants and get the opportunity to walk trunk-in-hand with the elephants. You will visit the stables where the elephants sleep at night, and even feed the gentle giants. On hot days, you may witness the elephants swimming to cool off! During a guided tour through the monkey sanctuary, guests will experience the splendor of their natural environment to the fullest while learning more about these interesting and intriguing creatures too.
