ITINERARY

1 During this one-day adventure, you will be greeted by a praise singer as you enter the GOLD restaurant. The evening will begin with an energetic drumming session performed by the live entertainment troupe. Genuine African food served in a tasting menu consisting of fourteen dishes. The menu is intended to be enjoyed in the traditional manner of sharing a meal with others. As your host for the evening, they will provide you with knowledge regarding the country of origin of the meal, as well as actual cooking techniques and spices that were utilised. Each and every dish that is certified as Halaal and contains meat, poultry, or fish also includes a vegetarian or vegan option. During dinner, you will be treated to a variety of participatory entertainment, such as tribal face painting, Mali puppetry, praise singing to greet you, and dancing to the sounds of marimba percussion and djembe drums. Drumming and dance sessions are provided for guests, and they are urged to participate in the fun.

OPTIONAL GOLD SPICE EXPERIENCE

This one-of-a-kind experience with African hospitality, stories, food and entertainment is curated in a small private dining room for a minimum of 2 guests with up to a maximum of 15 guests.
