SANI PASS & LESOTHO DAY TOUR

LESOTHO AND SANI PASS

A full day Sani Pass and Lesotho Tour is a great way to experience the beauty of the Drakensberg Mountains and the unique culture of Lesotho. It is a chance to explore an entirely new section of Kwa-Zulu Natal, which, during the winter months (May through September), can transform into a snowy winter wonderland. The Sani Pass is an adventurous mountain pass that connects South Africa and Lesotho. It is located in the West of KwaZulu-Natal, on the road between Himeville and Mokhotlong and crosses the Drakensberg Mountains by means of a gravel track with steep gradients and sharp hairpins, requiring a 4x4 vehicle and an experienced driver to navigate. At the top of the pass, you can find the Sani Mountain Lodge, which claims to have the highest pub in Africa.

ITINERARY

1

This full-day tour will take you on a picturesque journey through the magical Midlands in KZN and up the stunning Sani Pass to a Sotho community in the Kingdom of Lesotho. The excursion will take place in a 4x4 vehicle. The journey continues via Sani Pass and crosses the border into Lesotho. You will make many stops along the journey at different overlooks to take in the breath-taking scenery. The Sani Top Chalet is the highest pub in Africa, and once you reach the summit of the pass, you will have the option to pay a visit to it. You might also go for a stroll to the Sani Top Church, which is a quaint little chapel that was constructed in the year 1910. Following lunch, you will continue on with the journey into Lesotho, where you will spend some time in an authentic Basotho village. In the afternoon you will head back via Underberg until you reach your destination. This is merely a summary of what you might anticipate experiencing during a full-day tour of Sani Pass and Lesotho. It is possible that the precise activities and schedule will change depending on which tour operator you go with.
