

SHARK CAGE DIVING PRIVATE CAPE TOWN TOUR

CAPE TOWN

Prepare to meet the king of the ocean, the great white shark, in an unforgettable shark cage dive adventure. You will capture every moment of this thrilling encounter with your camera and go pro, as you come face to face with the legendary Jaws. Your day begins with a scenic 2-hour drive along the national road, leading you to the charming town of Kleinbaai. This is the world's capital for shark cage diving, where great whites and bronze whalers prowl and hunt in the rich waters, attracted by a massive colony of 60,000+ Cape Fur Seals that live on Dyer Island. This is the ultimate shark destination, where you will experience the thrill of a lifetime.

ITINERARY

1

You'll be picked up from your hotel between 05:00 and 07:00 for a coastal journey to Kleinbaai, passing the Hottentots Holland mountain range. Upon arrival, enjoy a full breakfast at the Shark Cage Diving Centre to kick-start your day. Following breakfast, receive a comprehensive briefing on the cage diving experience. The dive lasts about three hours, with the option to watch from the boat or from the safety cages onboard. You decide whether to enter the water.

After the dive, you will enjoy a light lunch on shore, thereafter the tour continues along the scenic Overberg south coastal route, passing through Hermanus, Betty's Bay, Pringle Bay and Gordon's Bay.

You can choose to visit Harold Porter National Botanical Garden or observe African Penguins at Stony Point, with Betty's Bay as a convenient stop for either option.
