ACCOMMODATION

24 luxury suites and 18 private chalets, sleeping up to 60 guests. Established in 1999, the Garden Route Game Farm is a 4-star safari lodge located close to the town of Albertinia on what was the first privately-owned game reserve in the Cape. The malaria-free safari destination is home to the Big 5 and an abundance of general game and birds. The African-themed décor is elegant, fresh and contemporary and each spacious unit is fully-equipped for comfort and convenience. A private deck with an outdoor shower and plunge pool offers guests panoramic views of the breathtaking bushveld surrounds. Children of all ages are welcome at Garden Route Game Lodge.

ITINERARY

1 Guests are collected in Cape Town and driven via Hermanus to Cape Agulhas; the southernmost tip of Africa and where the Indian and Atlantic oceans officially meet. Explore the beautiful coastal surrounds and visit the Cape Agulhas lighthouse. It's the second-oldest in South Africa and still working. Your journey winds its way through the magical Garden Route to a small town called Albertinia, which lies at the foot of the serene Langeberg Mountains. Book into the lodge; rest and freshen up before departing for a late-afternoon Big 5 safari tour of the privately-owned game reserve. Buffet dinner served in the lodge restaurant. Overnight at Garden Route Game Lodge.

Includes: Dinner

2 Wake up early for a 3-hour sunrise game drive in the private game reserve. Return for a hearty breakfast and be ready to depart mid-morning for the return journey to Cape Town. We stop off at the local reptile park en route to the bustling coastal town of Hermanus which is famous for whale-watching and its street market, and then onto Betty's Bay to see the African penguins. Arrive in Cape Town late afternoon (approx 17h00).

Includes: Breakfast
