ACCOMMODATION

Accommodations for guests are designed to resemble the tastes of 18th-century African explorers and are furnished with real colonial furnishings. Arranged along the banks of a seasonal river, the seven opulent rooms are connected by high wooden walkways. Every king-size suite has its own distinct personality and tale, reminiscent of the exploits of the first European explorers in Africa. Each air-conditioned suite has a sumptuous en suite bathroom and a private deck with a plunge pool, giving visitors the seclusion they need to unwind and take in the African landscape and sun from the comfort of their accommodation.

ITINERARY

1 You will depart at approximately 7:00 from the OR Tambo Airport Bus Terminal in Johannesburg and travel through the beautiful Highveld of Gauteng and Mpumalanga, travelling east on the N4 expressway until you reach the Manyeleti Game Reserve. You should allow six to seven hours for the journey, during which you will stop frequently to stretch your legs and have some refreshments along the way. You should anticipate arriving at the lodge about midday, giving you time to unwind and freshen up before embarking on your first afternoon safari drive in an open safari vehicle. You will return to the lodge when the sun sets, where a delicious dinner will be waiting for you. Lunch and dinner are included in your stay at the Tintswalo Safari lodge, where you spend the night in an opulent accommodation.

2-4 Before leaving on the morning game drives, get a nice cup of coffee and some rusks after an early wake-up call. See the sun rise over the African bush and hope to spot some still-hunting night-time animals. You will get back at the lodge in time for late breakfasts, and after that, the rest of the days is yours to do as you want. Your game drives for the afternoon will leave at approximately 16:00 and return shortly after dusk, in time for you to relax around the boma and have dinner. Your package at the Tintswalo Safari lodge includes lodging in one of their luxurious rooms for the nights as well as breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

5 You will rise early once more on the final day of your stay, savour a hot coffee and some rusks, and then head out for one last game drive. After experiencing another African sunrise, you return to the lodge for a scrumptious breakfast before departing on the long journey back to Johannesburg. You should arrive at your drop-off point around 17:00.
