ACCOMMODATION

Sekekama Tented Camp: Located in the Motlala Reserve offers an affordable glamping experience, featuring fully solar-powered tents with all home comforts, a communal area for dining and socialising, a pool, bar and restaurant. Its fully solar-powered tents are equipped with comfortable beds, fresh linens, and essential amenities for a restful stay.

Bayete Guest Lodge: Bayete is a family-run resort with 30 rooms situated in a lovely tropical landscape. The Dining Boma and Bar surround the huge teardrop swimming pool in the centre of the lodge. The Tavern is rich in history and character, and it is central to the communal space, where guests can meet, enjoy refreshments, and socialize. The rates include a full English breakfast served every morning in the dining boma. The Lodge has a fast fibre-optic wi-fi connection that covers all rooms and spaces of the lodge and is free for guests.

ITINERARY

1 You will be collected from OR Tambo International Airport in Johannesburg and driven to Sekekama Tented Camp, where you will check in to your site around 14:00.

After some time to relax, at 15:00 depart for a 3-hour afternoon sunset game drive in an open safari vehicle in the Blue Canyon Reserve. Return to camp around 19:00 for a boma fire dinner and tranquil night under the stars.

2+3 Your days will be filled with game drives in search for the "Big Five" and other animals. They may proceed in one of two ways (according to animal activity at the time): an early departure for Kruger National Park with a bush breakfast along the route and an earlier return, or having breakfast at the lodge first, departing and returning later.

Your Kruger safari will last about 7 to 8 hours, during which you will venture into the Orpen-Satara area. You will return to the camp with time to unwind and get ready for starlit dinners around the fire.

4 After breakfast today it is time for good-byes and your return to Johannesburg.

You should arrive in the city around 17:00 or 18:00 and overnight at a budget hotel.

5 Today you board a scheduled flight to Victoria Falls where you should arrive in time to check in and explore your accommodation at Bayete Guest Lodge, by late afternoon, you will depart on a Zambezi River Dinner Cruise.

You will be picked up to drive to where you board the boat for your dinner cruise that lasts about 3 hours. Enjoy a magical sunset over the Zambezi while having a 3-course meal. After the cruise, you will be dropped off at the lodge again.

6 After breakfast at the lodge, you will depart on a guided tour of the falls, which will keep you occupied for the morning.

This afternoon you have some free time for optional extra activities like a visit to Devils pool, a Chobe game drive, Canopy tour, Zipline or a Helicopter Flight of the Angels.

Enjoy dinner at own cost at Bayete Guest Lodge or any other restaurant in the area.

7 After breakfast you will have some more free time for at least one more optional activity or some shopping, then you will be transferred back to the airport for your flight. Excluded: Flight
