ACCOMMODATION

The Radisson Safari Hotel is located in the centre of the grasslands, approximately two kilometres outside of Hoedspruit. From here, guests can take in breathtaking views of the Drakensberg Mountains. The neighbouring natural reserves are an experience the whole family will enjoy. With two pools, a Kids' Club, and a concierge to help you plan fun activities, you'll never be bored at this resort. From a state-of-the-art spa and fitness centre to spacious meeting rooms, this chic hotel has everything you could possibly need. A wide variety of fresh local and international dishes are available at the on-site restaurants and bars.

ITINERARY

1 Guests can fly into Hoedspruit Eastgate Airport from either Cape Town or Johannesburg. We will also meet you at Eastgate for transportation to and from Radisson Hotel. You will arrive in the afternoon in time for lunch around 12:30, thereafter you will check in at 14:00. Your first excursion on this immersive bushveld experience is a 3 hour sunset drive in the Blue Canyon Reserve, departing at 15:00. Consisting of 38 000 hectares of pristine African bushveld, Blue Canyon provides a breathtaking sanctuary for some of Africa's rarest and most iconic wildlife species, including rhinos, elephants, lions, cheetahs and leopards. Experience the majesty of the African sunset over the bushveld, with sundowners and snacks provided, before heading back to the hotel for dinner at 18:30.

2 On your last morning, you will depart on a 3-hour morning safari adventure. After breakfast you will be dropped off at Eastgate airport for your return flight to Cape Town or Johannesburg.
