5-DAY NGUNI LODGE MID- RANGE TOUR

VICTORIA FALLS

Nguni Lodge offers exceptional service, delicious cuisine, and stunning views, making it the perfect starting point for your adventures. Situated in a tranquil residential area near Victoria Falls rainforest, the lodge is named after the resilient Nguni cow breed, with locally made furniture and art.

Your safari includes a guided rainforest walk and a thrilling day in Chobe National Park, cruising the river and spotting wildlife. Optional activities like a helicopter flight over the falls, microlight flight, or Devil's Pool swim add excitement. This 5-day mid-range tour promises wonder and delight at every turn.

ITINERARY

- 1 On your tour's first day, a guide will take you from the airport to Nguni Lodge. After relaxing, they'll pick you up for a sunset cruise on the Zambezi River. Sip sparkling wine and enjoy canapés as you capture stunning views of the falls against the fiery sky. End the day with a gourmet dinner under the African sky.
- 2 After breakfast, journey with your guide into the vibrant rainforest at the Falls' edge. Experience breath-taking viewpoints, feel the spray, and hear the thunderous Falls up close. Capture panoramas of this natural wonder's raw power. Return invigorated, with the afternoon free for optional adventures like:
 - a game reserve tour
 - helicopter ride
 - bungee jumping
 - cultural tours
- 3 After breakfast, depart on a full-day trip to Chobe National Park near Kasane in Botswana, close to Victoria Falls. Enjoy a morning game viewing cruise on the Chobe River, followed by lunch at a riverbank hotel. Then, experience an exhilarating afternoon game drive in safari vehicles. Return to Victoria Falls by approximately 18:30 with your Zimbabwean guide, remember to bring passports and note that children under 2 are not allowed. Order of activities may change
- 4 While enjoying your breakfast you can decide to have a day of rest and enjoy the lodge, wonder Victoria falls, or indulge in some more optional exciting adventures.
- 5 Spend your last day at leisure or indulge in any of the above or similar activities. When it is time, you will be transferred back to the airport for your departing flight.
